II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

Federal question

Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

List the specific federal statutes, federal treaties, and/or provisions of the United States Constitution that are at issue in this case.

15 U.S. Code § 1681c-2 - Block of information resulting from identity theft

B. If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is Diversity of Citizenship1. The Plaintiff(s)*a. If the plaintiff is an individual

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____.

b. If the plaintiff is a corporation

The plaintiff, (name) _____, is incorporated under the laws of the State of (name) _____, and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) _____.

(If more than one plaintiff is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional plaintiff.)

2. The Defendant(s)a. If the defendant is an individual

The defendant, (name) _____, is a citizen of the State of (name) _____. Or is a citizen of (foreign nation) _____.

b. If the defendant is a corporation

The defendant, (name) , is incorporated the laws of the State of (name) , and has its principal place of business in the State of (name) .
Or is incorporated under the laws of (foreign nation) ,
and has its principal place of business in (name) .

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

III. Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

1. On 11-14-2022, the Plaintiff provided Experian and TransUnion with appropriate proof of their identity, a copy of an identity theft report, identified the specific information created as a result of the identity theft, and confirmed that it was not related to any of their legitimate transactions.
2. Despite the Plaintiff's compliance with the requirements set forth in 15 U.S. Code § 1681c-2, Experian and TransUnion failed to promptly block the information resulting from identity theft as required by law.
3. The Defendant's failure to block the reporting of information resulting from identity theft constitutes a willful noncompliance with the provisions of 15 U.S. Code § 1681c-2, giving rise to civil liability under 15 U.S. Code § 1681n.
4. The non-compliance with Experian and TransUnion not only impeded the progress of a ongoing probate case but also exacerbated the situation by hindering the ability to conduct a necessary credit assessment. This delay in the probate proceedings, directly resulting from the inability to access accurate credit information, has added a layer of complexity to an already intricate legal process. Furthermore, the persistently inaccurate and misleading information on my credit report, stemming from the identity theft, has continued to inflict substantial harm on my creditworthiness and overall financial standing. The protracted nature of this non-compliance has prolonged the adverse effects, making it increasingly challenging to rectify the repercussions of the identity theft and restore my financial stability.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests the following relief from this Court:

An injunction ordering Experian and TransUnion to promptly block the information resulting from identity theft in accordance with 15 U.S. Code § 1681c-2.

Actual damages suffered by the Plaintiff, including any economic losses and emotional distress caused by Experian and TransUnion's violation of the statute Statutory damages under 15 U.S. Code § 1681n for the Defendant's willful noncompliance with the provisions of 15 U.S. Code § 1681c-2.

Fees and costs associated with bringing this action.

Grant any other relief deemed just and proper by this Court.

V. Certification and Closing

Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11, by signing below, I certify to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief that this complaint: (1) is not being presented for an improper purpose, such as to harass, cause unnecessary delay, or needlessly increase the cost of litigation; (2) is supported by existing law or by a nonfrivolous argument for extending, modifying, or reversing existing law; (3) the factual contentions have evidentiary support or, if specifically so identified, will likely have evidentiary support after a reasonable opportunity for further investigation or discovery; and (4) the complaint otherwise complies with the requirements of Rule 11.
